EXTENDING THE SENATE'S APPRECIATION TO THE STAFF

Mr. REID. Madam President, I would like to—we do not do this nearly often enough—extend our appreciation, that of the Senate, to the staff. This reading that I have done in the last few minutes has taken hours to accomplish. This is probably the 15th time they have typed this. We thought we had it done on a number of different occasions, and because of people's schedules and other things Senators wanted, they had to retype it again and again and again.

So I appreciate their patience. And I am sorry it took so long. I really wish we were accomplishing more with all of this work because, as a body, we have not accomplished too much, but we are moving on the best we can.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. REID. Madam President, it appears there is nothing further to come before the Senate. I therefore ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:19 p.m., adjourned until Friday, September 20, 2002, at 10 a.m.
